Overall health status of the population
Availability of medical care (general or specialised)	Organizational characteristics	Socio-economic characteristics
Availability of social care	Level of development of AFTH	Demographic characteristics
Urbanisation	Institutional characteristics	Clinical characteristics
Environment Practice context	Health care provider Supply side	Patient Demand side

Practice variable: involuntary full-time admission

Association of interest in the study

Adjustment factors with similar mechanisms as the association of interest

Additional adjustment factors identified in the literature

Flowchart for the selection of included sectors based on data quality

229 public or private non-profit hospitals organized in sectors of adult psychiatry in mainland France and mandated to provide involuntary care

Hospitals not consistently reporting their annual full-time inpatient activity in both the RIM-P and the SAE databases
(n=39)

Hospitals not reporting the repartition of their human resources between full-time hospitalization and AFTH in terms of full-time equivalent
(n=60)

Hospitals not consistently reporting their number of adult psychiatric sectors in both the RIM-P and the SAE databases
(n=13)

117 hospitals

399 sectors of adult psychiatry providing involuntary care