

Our work matters

"At the end of the day, when you work with the DMH... your job is rewarding, you're helping the people who need it the most."

*Sarjack Mehta, MD
General Psychiatrist*

"DMH provides support for children and families who are often marginalized and underserved. Everyone deserves access to high quality mental health services, & I'm proud to be part of a system that is making that possible for families in Southern California."

*Kira Williams, MD
Child Psychiatrist*

Join the largest, most dynamic mental health department in the nation. We are creating the future of mental health services, and we are seeking physicians who are ready to join our team and push the boundaries of traditional community practice.

Illness Self-Management Programs: A Selection Guide

The authors review evidence for the effectiveness of five of the most popular programs and describe distinctive features of each program to help administrators and others make informed choices about which to implement.

Implementing Routine Behavioral Health Screening for Children

When a public health system in Massachusetts implemented routine behavioral health screening for children, it also colocated social workers in its primary care clinics. The change led to increases in behavioral health treatment and, inexplicably, emergency department visits.
